

the classical, cinematic & chillout music-video channel

JUNE 2011 HIGHLIGHTS

ASTON – E.T

Australian classical group Aston have earned a huge international following for their incredible classical cover versions of pop songs by the likes of Coldplay, Rihanna and Lady Gaga. Now they're back with another fantastic cover version—this time Katy Perry's recent hit 'E.T', and are continuing to give classical music a modern make over.

JOSH GROBAN – HIGHER WINDOW

Higher Window is the latest single from the internationally renowned vocalist, songwriter and Grammy Award winner Josh Groban . With 25 million album sales to his name already, Josh Groban's profile has never been higher following the release of his current album 'Illuminations'.

ROSEY CHAN & GRACE FONG – PAGANINI VARIATIONS FOR 2 PIANOS

This stunning video shot by filmmaker Mike Figgis sees acclaimed pianists Rosey Chan and Grace Fong collaborate in a performance of Paganini's Variations for 2 pianos. Rosey and Grace are also touring together in China this year.

RUMER – GOODBYE GIRL

British singer Rumer has had an incredible 6 months since the release of her debut album Seasons of My Soul in 2010 receiving 2 Brit Award nominations. This summer she will be headlining music festivals around the world as well as touring throughout the UK. Her new video is for the beautiful and mellow track Goodbye Girl, produced by British composer Steve Brown.

NILS FRAHM – AMBRE

The talented Nils Frahm started playing the piano as a young student of Nahum Brodski - a student of Tchaikovsky's last protégé. He released his first two albums simultaneously: Wintermusik, a and The Bells. In this video he gives a live performance of the beautiful piece Ambre at the Haltern Pop Festival in Germany.

CLOSE UP: BLAKE

This month C Music TV speaks exclusively to British vocal group Blake made up of Ollie, Jules, Stephen and Humphrey. The classical 'boyband' mix eclectic classical and pop songs with rich harmony vocals including versions of songs like U2's Without or Without You and classical greats like Nessun Dorma and Ave Maria.

In this Close Up interview Blake tell C Music TV about their busy schedule, how it feels to perform live to huge crowds around the world and why they love what they do . Look out for this exclusive interview on C Music TV in June.