

C MUSIC TV - JUNE 2010 VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

ANDREA BOCELLI AND ANNA NETREBKO 'BRINDISI'

World class Italian tenor & international recording artist Andrea Bocelli joins award-winning Russian soprano Anna Netrebko to perform 'Brindisi' from Giuseppe Verdi's opera La Traviata at the Classical Brit Awards, filmed at the Royal Albert Hall London. Based on the novel 'La Dame aux Camélias' by Alexandre Dumas, the title means 'The Woman Who Strayed' & describes a tragic love story between the lead vocalists.

RYANDAN 'HIGH'

Identical twins Ryan & Dan Kowarsky are an American musical duo born & raised in Cincinnati. Aged eighteen they boldly marched into the offices of Sony Music in Toronto & walked out with a record deal. They subsequently signed with Ucj & released their UK self titled debut. An eclectic mix of pop, opera & classical the album achieved international critical acclaim & entered the British album chart in the top ten.

THE SAINT 'SIX UNDERGROUND'

The Saint (1997) is a film by Phillip Noyce starring Val Kilmer & Elisabeth Shue. Based on the popular 1960s TV series starring Roger Moore, Kilmer plays Simon Templar, the suave international espionage expert & man of 1,000 faces who forgoes his mission for love. New Zealander Graeme Revell composed the score, which featured contributions from Duran Duran & Sneaker Pimps.

CLANNAD 'MYSTERY GAME'

Clannad are a Grammy Award winning Irish musical group credited for being the first band to put Irish traditional music on the world stage. Clannad made their mark in Ireland & mainland Europe in the 70s with a contemporary mix of Irish & New Age music, gaining international recognition throughout the 80s/90s. With more than 15 million albums sold worldwide, the band continue to enjoy a long & successful career

SETH LAKEMAN 'WHITE HARE'

Seth Lakeman is a British born fiddle player & contemporary folk musician. A former member of folk band The Lakeman Brothers, Seth released his debut solo album Kitty Jay in 2004, which received widespread critical acclaim & a Mercury Music Award nomination. His second album 'Freedom Fields', featuring 'White Hare' is a collection of soaring self penned tracks encompassing universal themes of love and loss.

C MUSIC TV CLOSE UP - FUSE 'FUZE'

FUSE is a British musical collaboration comprising violinists Linzi Stoppard & Ben Lee. Hugely successful in their own right Linzi & Ben joined forces over a shared desire to bring classical music to a mainstream audience & are due to release their debut album of contemporary arrangements for electric violin with Edel Records later this year.

FUSE talk to C Music TV about the imminent release of their debut album, which they hope reflects the versatility of the electric violin, why they choose to include a more contemporary collection of tracks, including Andreas Johnson's Glorious & Coldplay's Fix You & their excitement at working with Frances Rossi of Status Quo.