

Wilhelm.tel GmbH to Carry C Music TV in Germany.

Germany

July 2008

Wilhelm.tel, the country's region-wide TV & Telecommunications network, will distribute C Music TV in Germany.

C Music TV, the world's first classical, cinematic and chillout music video-channel, launches in Germany in August on the Wilhelm.tel IPTV network in a deal brokered by the agent CC Content Company.

Wilhelm.tel which is a subsidiary of the public utility company Norderstedt, was founded in 1999. It was the first region-wide high-speed broadband telecommunications network in Germany and offers TV, data and voice transmission services to private and business costumers via glass fibre cables.

CC Content Company, based in Köln, Germany, manages more than 150 national and international TV providers and is known as the leading content aggregator for IPTV in Germany. The CEO of CC Content Company, Stephan Königfeld was a former director of primaTV Broadcasting, which offers a wide range of free- and pay-TV.

Commenting on the deal Mr Königfeld said, "C Music TV is an exceptional channel and holds a unique position in the International channel market place"

C Music TV will be available in the basic subscriber package on Wilhelm.tel's broadband offering from July 2008.
