

C Music TV launches in Sri Lanka

Sri Lanka Telecom (SLT) is the premier telecommunications services provider in Sri Lanka and one of the country's most valuable blue chip companies with an annual turnover in excess of Rs 40 billion. The Company provides a wide range of domestic and international services which includes fixed & wireless voice, internet and data services that cater to a wide audience comprising of both corporate and domestic customers.

In 2008 SLT launched their Internet Protocol Television service. IPTV is a new revolution in television history where service providers can utilize existing copper cable network to deliver high quality videos and sound using Internet Protocol.

The SLT IPTV service includes the following channels as standard:

Rupavahini, Channel Eye, ITN, Derana, Max TV, CNN, BBC World, NDTV News, Al- Jazeera, Ujala, B4U Movies, Euro Sports, Euro Sports News, Nickelodeon, BBC Entertainment, NDTV GoodTimes, Luxe TV, VH1 and MTV.

The following channels are available on subscription: C Music TV, HBO, HBO Signature, HBO Family, Taffy Kids, B4U Music, STV, Trace, Fashion TV, Bollywood Channel, Travel Channel, Wedding TV and Wine TV.

C Music TV is also available on Mobicast , the first regional Mobile TV platform across Asia.