

MultiChoice Africa Adds C Music TV to DStv

MultiChoice DSTV Africa

15 March 2010

MultiChoice is always looking for more ways to enhance and add more value its bouquets, so on March 15, 2010, DStv Bué subscribers will have three more channels to choose from.

MultiChoice continues to give Angolan DStv Bué subscribers so much more! In the last two weeks 10 new channels have been launched on DStv Bué. With so much already can you take any more?

MultiChoice is always looking for more ways to enhance and add more value its bouquets, so on March 15, 2010, DStv Bué subscribers will have three more channels to choose from.

C Music TV (channel 329) promises to deliver uninterrupted genres of music, which include Crossover, Cinematic, Chillout and Classical music.

TVC3 (channel 514) is a channel exclusively dedicated to movies and only movies. The channel covers all movie genres from action to animation, comedies to thrillers, classical to independent and American to European, African and Asian. The Travel Channel (channel 525) is a Portuguese subtitled channel focusing on entertaining informative lifestyle and travel programmes.

“So much more is the DStv motto, and it is living up to it”, says Francisco Teixeira Homem, General Manager for MultiChoice Angola. “We were delighted to have the addition of 10 new channels that expand sports, entertainment, music, news and religious options. In this rapidly growing market DStv is committed to offering the best possible family television experience. What better way to do that than to provide you, the subscriber with more choice.”
